2012 PINOT NOIR • CARNEROS • SONOMA COUNTY RICCI VINEYARD

Tin Barn Vineyards celebrates those hidden treasures that lie off the map. Our wines highlight the true character of Sonoma County. High atop the ridges of the Sonoma Coast, just off Tin Barn Road, lies a remote plot of Syrah vines. From this fog enshrouded slope, we sourced grapes for our very first wine and derived inspiration for our name.

In the twelve years since, winemaker Michael Lancaster and his business partners have made a fitting home in our own "tin barn"—a warehouse in rural Sonoma that serves as both cellar space and tasting room. Here, we've joined with fellow artisan winemakers to form the collective known as Eighth Street Wineries.

Come visit sometime! Remember, though, that a map will only get you so far.

Along the outskirts of Sonoma on a slope facing the San Pablo Bay lie Dale Ricci's Pinot Noir vineyards. This is the third year that we have sourced our silky, supple Pinot Noir from this cool, slightly foggy location.

Dried cherry flavors linger with caramel and clove, resulting in an elegant balance of fruit and spice.
